

Texas Collaborative for HIV Education and Prevention (TCHEP) Learning Series:

Updates and Recommendations for Primary and Emergency Care Services

Learning Series for Primary Care Providers

Webinar 1

Title	Ending the HIV Epidemic in Texas: The Role of Healthcare Providers
Date	May 27 th , 11 am - 12 pm
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Describe the urgency of ending the HIV epidemic in Texas from an epidemiological and public health perspective.2) Identify critical steps in the HIV Prevention Cascade where clinicians can influence preventing new HIV transmissions in Texas.3) Discuss the role healthcare providers need to adopt to partner with public health in ending the HIV epidemic in Texas.

Speakers	David Lakey, MD, The University of Texas System
	Harold J. Phillips, MRP, US Department of Health and Human Services
	Judith Steinberg, MD, MPH, US Department of Health and Human Services
	Ann Dills, MSW, Texas Department of State Health Services
	Philip Huang, MD, MPH, Dallas County Health and Human Services

Webinar 2

Title	Fighting HIV Stigma to End the Epidemic: Evidence Based Solutions for Healthcare in Texas
Date	June 10 th , 12:00 -1:00 pm
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Define HIV stigma and describe prevalence and drivers of HIV stigma in healthcare settings.2. Identify internal and external stigma as a major barrier in HIV care, as it correlates to delivering diagnosis, linkage to care, and referral opportunities.3. Differentiate between stigmatizing and person-first languages and identify effective methods for fostering positive client-provider communications in healthcare settings.4. Discuss stigma reduction strategies in health care settings.
Speakers	Barbara Taylor, MD, UT Health San Antonio Greg Cassilas, Thrive Youth Center Yolonda Crous, MD-MPH Student, UT Health San Antonio

Webinar 3

Title	A Status Neutral Approach: Redefining HIV Prevention and Care in Texas Healthcare Settings
Possible Date	June 16 th , 12:00 - 1:00pm
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Define the Status Neutral Approach for HIV Prevention and review the interventions adopted by clinicians.2) Explain the benefits of a Status Neutral Approach to prevent new HIV transmissions.3) Identify key characteristics and evaluation tools used to measure the effectiveness of the Status Neutral Approach to improve health outcomes of patients living with HIV or at risk of acquiring HIV.
Speakers	Roxana Cruz, MD, FACP, Texas Association of Community Health Centers Ogechika Alozie, MD, MPH, FACP, Southwest Viral Med

Webinar 4

Title	Biomedical HIV Prevention Strategies - PrEP and nPEP: Essential tools to end the HIV epidemic in Texas
Date	June 23 rd 11:00am - 12:00pm
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Compare and contrast PrEP and nPEP and identify when each is appropriate to prescribe to prevent the acquisition of HIV.2) Summarize the treatment guidelines and resources when prescribing or referring patients for PrEP and nPEP services.3) Demonstrate how a sexual health assessment protocol can be integrated in primary care services.4) Discuss the importance of sexual health assessment in identifying patients at risk of acquiring HIV and when it is appropriate to prescribe or refer patients to PrEP or nPEP services.
Speakers	Charlene Flash, MD, MPH, Avenue 360 Health and Wellness Mike Stefanowicz, DO, AAHIVS, CommUnityCare

Webinar 5

Title	Cultural Humility: Improving Patient Trust and Health Outcomes
Date	June 30 th , 12:00 -1:00pm
Learning Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Identify intrinsic and explicit biases in clinical care and explain the impact on health outcomes.2) Describe behaviors clinicians need to adopt to improve patient trust in healthcare to ensure patients will be treated equitably and receive the healthcare services they seek.3) Apply an equity lens when providing care to all patients seeking healthcare services.
Speaker/s	Shannon Guillot-Wright, PhD, University of Texas Medical Branch

Webinar 6

Title	Financing HIV Prevention Services in Primary Care: Routine HIV Screening, PrEP, and nPEP
-------	--

Date July 1st 12:00 -1:00pm

- Learning Objectives
1. Identify potential barriers associated with implementing routine opt out HIV screening, PrEP, and nPEP in clinical settings.
 2. Identify potential financial benefits of implementing routine opt out HIV screening, PrEP, and nPEP in healthcare settings.
 3. Describe effective strategies and best practices to maximize the financial benefits of and how to overcome the perceived barriers associated with offering routine HIV screening, PrEP, and nPEP in clinical settings in Texas.

Speaker/s TBD
